WHEREAS, Correctional Officers who work in the Beaufort County Jail are currently responsible for the security and supervision of incarcerated; and

WHEREAS, the morale of Correctional Officers is affected by many factors, and the public perception of the role of Correctional Officers is more often based upon dramatization than factual review; and

WHEREAS, good job performance requires Correctional Officers to absorb the adverse attitudes present in confinement situations while maintaining themselves as true professionals in order to have their actions appreciated and accepted by the public at large; and

WHEREAS, the attitude and morale of Correctional Officers are a matter worthy of serious statewide attention; and

WHEREAS, "National Correctional Officers Week" will be observed during the week beginning May 7, 1989; and institution heads throughout the South Carolina Department of Corrections, as well as responsible authorities for the Beaufort County Jail will observe such week with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that County Council of Beaufort County officially recognizes the commitment and outstanding contributions made by Correctional Officers and extends its appreciation and hearty congratulations to each officer for this well-deserved honor and recognition.

Dated this 8th day of May, 1989.
