APPLICATION FOR PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION: Newly Constructed Unoccupied and Unsold Detached Single Family Homes

Property tax exemption allowed

SECTION 1. Section 12-37-220\(B\) of the 1976 Code, as last amended by Act 357 of 2008, is further amended by adding a new item at the end appropriately numbered to read:

"() one hundred percent of the value of an improvement to real property consisting of a newly constructed detached single family home offered for sale by a residential builder or developer through the earlier of:

- (a) the property tax year in which the home is sold or otherwise occupied; or
- (b) the property tax year ending the sixth December thirty-first after the home is completed and a certificate of occupancy, if required, is issued thereon.

In lieu of other exemption application requirements, the owner of property eligible for the exemption allowed by this item shall obtain the exemption by notifying the county assessor and county auditor by written affidavit no later than thirty days after the certificate of occupancy is issued and no later than January thirty-first in subsequent exemption eligibility years that the property is of the type eligible for the exemption and unoccupied and if found in order, the exemption is allowed for the applicable property tax year. If the unsold residence is occupied at any time before eligibility for the exemption ends, the owner shall so notify the auditor and assessor and the exemption ends as provided in subitem (a) of this item."

Summary: The General Assembly passed legislation in 2009 to give builder/developers an exemption on property tax for newly constructed unoccupied and unsold detached single family homes that received their Certificate of Occupancy (CO) after 2006. Effective in July 1st, 2009, a newly constructed home that remains unoccupied or unsold will not have the improvement (home) taxed until it is occupied or sold, or the home reached the sixth December 31st after receiving it's CO. Section 12-37-220(B) of state code of law, bill – H. 3018, Ratification – R88, Act – 76.
